SUBJECT: Air America History

1. On 12 December 1975, [REDACTED] and I met with the Deputy Director for Administration to discuss future action on the Air America history. The history has been completed in draft through 1968 and the issue was whether to finish the history or stop it at this point. Also, if it was to be completed, how long would it take.

2. Mr. [REDACTED] indicated that he could complete the history in about four months of working time if his contract was modified to allow him to work that much longer. At present he is on a contract for 100 days per year and if that was amended to allow him to work up to 90 percent of his full-time salary, he could complete the job within the contract period.
